

If you can't answer these questions about Australian rock'n'roll, you just aren't as cool as we are.

1. What was Col Joye's real name?
2. Who was known as the Queen of the Mods?
3. How many of the five Easybeats are still alive?
4. Name three of the four members of the Master's Apprentices.
5. Which musician played in both the Wild Cherries and The Purple Hearts?
6. Which band evolved into the Loved Ones?
7. Who were the two lead singers in the Valentines?
8. Shirley Strachan used to say that before joining Skyhooks he was "on the tools". What did he mean?
9. Who was the host of Uptight?
10. What was the Atlantics' surf anthem Bombora named after?
11. Name the Go Set columnist who is now much better known as a novelist and poet.
12. Who wrote "The Real Thing"?
13. Why was Kommotion taken off the air in 1967?
14. At what time of the year was the Sunbury music festival held between 1972 and 1974?
15. Who played the role of Mary Magdalene in the first Australian production of Godspell?
16. Most people he knew thought he was crazy. Who was he and what was the name of his band?
17. Which group was Blown On The Air?
18. Ironically, this person thought it was a man's world. What is her name?
19. Who was known as The Wild One, but called himself The Mild One?
20. Which now defunct radio station organized a famous free rock concert at the Myer Music Bowl?

Answers available upon request

