

Matt Taylor - "The Spiral"
Forever Records - 1995

After years we met the other day
Looked at each other, don't know what to say
Memories come flooding back
It's sure good to see you again.

It was '75 out in the rain
Watching bands enjoying Chain
No-one cared when it started to flood
We all slid down in the mud.

There was music playing, people swaying
Some were out of it, others were praying
I only hope that some day I see such a wonderful sight again

I'm swingin out on the spiral
I'm swingin out on the spiral
I'm swingin out on the spiral
Out on the spiral of life.

We talked of life in '78
Sure there were hard times
Others were great
We made mistakes
It was a learning time
Possibilities still remain.

All the couples we knew who once were one
Say terrible things that the other has done
Torn apart we drift away, confetti in a hurricane.

I'm swingin out on the spiral
I'm swingin out on the spiral
I'm swingin out on the spiral
Out on the spiral of life.

Now your kids are at school
Your Dip. Ed's on the wall
You talk to computers with total recall
Sometimes you wonder did it really happen
With it ever happen again?

I'm packing my bags, I'm doing a show
I'll play my songs people hardly know.
Maybe they'll say "Hey that was nice,
I'd sure like to hear it again"

I'm swingin out on the spiral
I'm swingin out on the spiral
I'm swingin out on the spiral
Out on the spiral of life.
I'm swingin out on the spiral
I'm swingin out on the spiral
I'm swingin out on the spiral
Out on the spiral of life
Out on the spiral of life
Out on the spiral of life
